

Symposia, 1949-1990

MS-N056

2 manuscript boxes

Box 1

- f.1 Psychotherapy and case work, February 19-20, 1949
- f.2 Psychotherapy, February 3-4, 1951
- f.3 Current trends in psychosomatic concepts in psychoanalysis, February 9-10, 1952
- f.4 Evaluation of psychoanalytic therapy, February 28-March 1, 1953
- f.5 Symposium on narcissism, April 21-22, 1962
- f.6 Psychoanalysis as science and profession, March 11, 1967
- f.7 Contemporary issues of youth / 35th anniversary, October 26, 1968
- f.8 Psychoanalytic concepts and women today, October 17, 1970
- f.9 The contributions of child psychoanalysis to basic psychoanalytic education, May 20, 1972
- f.10 Psychoanalysis, psychotherapy, and the New England medical scene, 1894-1944, April 12-14, 1973
- f.11 Early phases in the development of object relations, April 5, 1974
- f.12 Current views toward a psychoanalytic concept of object relations, April 5, 1974
- f.13 Florence Clothier: speeches at 1973 and 1974 BPSI symposia (recollections of Hanns Sachs, Eric Ericson, Helene Deutsch)

Box 2

- f.1 The violent person, May 19, 1978
- f.2-9 Reflections on self psychology, October 31-November 2, 1980
- f.10 Pre-symposium seminar – a clinical presentation of treatment by psychoanalysis, October 28, 1983
- f.11 Pre-symposium seminar – psychoanalysis today: the integration of theory and practice, October 29-30, 1983
- f.12 Women and psychoanalysis: today and yesterday, February 4, 1984
- f.13 Clinical analysis today: a clinical perspective, April 7, 1984
- f.14 Psychoanalytic psychotherapy with the borderline patient, September 27, 1986
- f.15 The first Hanns Sachs symposium: psychoanalysis changing, September 23-24, 1989
- f.16 Resilience and psychological health, October 13-14, 1990