Recent Publications by BPSI Members

As you may have noticed, our new web site constantly features new journal and book publications by BPSI members. If you have published anything within the last year, let the library know! There is also a table with printouts of recent articles by members at the library entrance for everyone to make a copy.

Social Awareness Shelf

Check out our new Social Awareness Literature shelf just above the New Book releases! This collection is established by the BPSI Social Awareness Committee and the Library. Members of the committee have kindly donated books and recommended first titles:

- Lane, Christopher and Fanon, Frantz (1998) The Psychoanalysis of Race.
- Bulhan, Hussein Abdilah (1985) The Psychology of Oppression.
- Poussaint, Alvin F. and Alexander, Amy (2000) Lay My Burden Down
- Akhtar, Salman, ed. (2012) The African American Experience: Psychoanalytic Perspectives.
- Sklarew, Bruce; Twemlow, Stuart; Wilkinson, Sallye (2004) Analysts in the Trenches.

We hope the shelf keeps expanding, and welcome recommendations and contributions.

In the Archives

Recent Acquisitions

The family of a recently deceased
BPSI member, Dr. Ernest Hartmann, kindly gave BPSI a suitcase with valuable correspondence between Heinz Hartmann, Ernest Jones, Marie Bonaparte, Dora Hartmann, and Anna Freud. Heinz Hartmann was an early member of the Vienna Psychoanalytic Society, Sigmund Freud's pupil, and one of the founders of Ego

Psychology. Some of the letters are related to the founding of the Freud Museum in London. The most valuable originals may be later deposited to the Library of Congress.

Sanford Gifford's Oral Histories

Our late Director of Archives, Sanford Gifford, MD (1918-2013), was a passionate historian who collected archives all his life. It is no surprise that his own archive turns out to be larger than life. A chair of the American Psychoanalytic Association Oral History Committee, Dr. Gifford recorded interviews with noted psychoanalysts and their family members for over 40 years. Many of these recordings have already been archived at BPSI, but just recently 8 more boxes of tapes were discovered and added to our collection. New records will be processed and digitized next year. They are interviews, records of the meetings, and transcripts, including those surrounding the history of the BPSI/PINE split. Some of Dr. Gifford's research materials, such as a Twin study and social activism papers, have been transferred to the Countway Archives at Harvard.

New Projects

BPSI Collaboration with WGBH Archives

In the fall of 2013, BPSI Archives worked with the WGBH Archives, and became curators of WGBH's Psychology One programs broadcast in 1957-58 and, also, a video recording of Grete Bibring's Interview with Oliver Cope, 1975, now posted online. BPSI Archives contributed a transcript, metadata, and various biographical materials to contextualize Grete Bibring's story. Olga Umansky, MLS, teamed recent book donations by Deborah Choate, MD

and Karen Melikian, PhD, for the new Social Awareness Collection

With the fund, generously established by Dr. and Mrs. Newman for our library, we continue building our child analysis and neuropsychology collections and can afford to subscribe to costly infant and adolescent psychotherapy journals.

Our Gifford fund helps to purchase books on the history of psychoanalysis.

up with Murray Cohen, PhD, a long time BPSI member, to create a historic commentary to the televised psychology lectures of Dr. Edwin Boring. The late Sanford Gifford, MD, shared his biographical notes about Hanns Sachs, who happened to be Dr.
Boring's analyst and journal co-editor.
WGBH's Media Library and Archives are attempting to digitize their historic video collections with the support of the Melon Foundation and American Archive.

Simmons Internship

Our partnership with the Simmons College Archival Management Program continues. This time, we are fortunate to host a new student, Elizabeth Carron, who is processing and digitizing papers donated by Ernest Hartmann's family. Among archival treasures discovered in Dr. Hartmann's house are letters of Sigmund Freud, Anna Freud, Ernest Jones, Marie Bonaparte, and Heinz Hartmann. Some original materials may be later deposited to the Library of Congress. Elizabeth has more than 3 years of library-related work experience and holds BA in English and Francophone Studies from the UMass Amherst.
