

Hanns Sachs Library Records, 1938-1996

Updated by Lucy Davis 2019.

MS-N044

2 manuscript boxes

Biographical note:

Sanford Gifford was the director of the Hanns Sachs Library at the Boston Psychoanalytic Society from 1966-2000. This collection contains the documents he created or collected while the director of the library.

Scope and Content:

There are library annual reports from 1938 to 1996, with some gaps. There is also some correspondence from the 1990s, as well as some library and committee records, and some histories of BPSI and the Hanns Sachs Library. For more information about Sanford Gifford, see his personal collection in the archives (MS-N 004).

Access:

There are no restrictions on this collection. All researchers: please consult the archivist or librarian before using this collection.

Copyright:

The BPSI holds the copyright to all the information in this collection. Please consult the archivist or librarian before using any information.

Folder List:

Box 1	f.1-38	Annual reports, 1938-1996
Box 2	f. 1	History – Hanns Sachs Library, by Dr. Sanford Gifford. 2000.
	f.2-3	Advisory committee, 1993-1994
	f.4	Archives project, 1993
	f.5	Benaron, Tully – donation, 1993
	f.6-7	Book reviews, 1991, 1993
	f.8-10	Correspondence, 1985-1994
	f.11	History of BPSI Library, 1985
	f.12	“The History of #15 Commonwealth Avenue,” by William C. Ackerly, M.D., 1993
	f.13-15	Library committee, 1995-1996
	f.16	“Reflections on Hanns Sachs: The first Hanns Sachs symposium,” 1989
	f.17	Books donated by Dr. Eger, with appraiser’s report, 1987
	f.18	Documentation of Dr. Sanford Gifford’s search for letters of Hanns Sachs. 1978-1979.